

Casa Amore Miami

Restaurants

Versace Mansion

1116 Ocean Drive

36 locals recommend

One of the most beautiful iconic property for a romantic evening or a breezy brunch. This upscale Mediterranean restaurant is decked in frescoes, mosaics & over looks a gold-lined pool. They have a nice set menu for lunch which is well priced (just 35 dollars per person plus tax and tip) but must be booked well in advance. Dress smart casual or in your favourite Versace outfit.

Thai House South Beach

1137 Washington Ave

19 locals recommend

The most delicious and non pretentious Thai food in South Beach. Simple basic decor with indoor and outdoor seating but the food overtakes everything. Must visit for authentic flavours and generous portions.

Planta South Beach

850 Commerce St

41 locals recommend

Planta is an upscale plant-based fine-dining restaurant in South Beach's south of fifth neighbourhood . They offers innovative vegan cuisine which is delicious and nutritious. The space, with its leafy palms and sleek banquettes is modern chic. I recommend the steamed dumplings, the truffle bianca pizza and the signature lasagna.

Cecconi's Miami

4385 Collins Ave

61 locals recommend

Located in the garden courtyard of Soho Beach House Cecconi's is a modern Italian restaurant featuring simply prepared Venetian inspired food. It has become a critically acclaimed dining destination and offers an elegant and relaxed dining experience, it has brunch buffet on weekends. I recommend the baked Gnocchi Romana Gorgonzola, Cannellini Bean Dip and the Truffle, Goat Cheese, Zucchini Blossom Pizza.

Hutong Miami

600 Brickell Avenue

7 locals recommend

Hong Kong-based restaurant Hutong has debuted here in the Magic City. It serves up delicious Northern Chinese fare with artisanal dim sum and exotic signature cocktails in a bright and colourful setting. But the pièce de résistance and something unique to the Miami location is the “Great Wall,” a 70-foot long wall of hand-carved Chinese wood doors and panels that pulsate at night time with various colours.

Coyo Taco

2320 NW 2nd Ave

175 locals recommend

Miami’s freshest Mexican street food experience. A small eatery in Wynwood, the art district, attracted by the good music, good food and a fun bar. Coyo Taco serves traditional recipes with the best ingredients in a fiesta-style atmosphere.

Word has it that the latest restaurant in the area, created by two Americans and a Mexican, serves traditional recipes with the best ingredients in a fiesta-style atmosphere.

The name is derived from Mexico City’s most artistic neighbourhood – Coyoacán – home to Frida Kahlo, among others.

Lucali

1930 Bay Rd

60 locals recommend

Outstanding Pizza pies, humongous size which is perfect for two people. Dont miss the baked artichokes and ravioli with pesto for appetisers. Order the Nutella Pie for the ones with a sweet tooth.

Babylon Mediterranean Kitchen & Bar

560 Washington Ave

7 locals recommend

Best Middle Eastern food with fresh salads and delicious falafels.

Time Out Market Miami

1601 Drexel Ave

33 locals recommend

Its a nice space with many different cuisines in a fund chilled out setting. My favourites are tacos from La Santa Taqueria, pizzas at Pizzella and definitely the yummy vegan Chinese at The Rogue Panda.

Palace Bar & Restaurant

1052 Ocean Dr

86 locals recommend

This is one of the best offerings on Ocean Drive to sit and watch the live performances by drag artists. Food is average but great for drinks and spending a fun evening.

La Sandwicherie

229 14th Street

148 locals recommend

Cute hole in the wall sandwich joint. Great customization of sandwiches and quick service. Very reasonable prices.

Clubs

Miami is home to the world's best nightclubs

Club Space

34 NE 11th St

240 locals recommend

One of Miami's best unpretentious nightclubs open till dawn. The club is downtown and you would need to Uber it.

LIV

4441 Collins Ave

517 locals recommend

A very high end nightclub, dress to impress and be prepared to spend a small fortune to have a great night.

STORY Nightclub

136 Collins Ave

Great place to hang out over drinks and enjoy the live music and the beautiful crowd.

City advice

Getting around

Walk around South Beach or take Ubers to midtown

You can walk to almost all places in South Beach and if you want to travel to midtown or downtown, Ubers are your best bet.
